- Concept of Restaurant: Casual Bistro Style Fare
- Decor: The stylish décor is the creation of world-renowned architect and designer Robert Di Leonardo who blended a traditional environment with unexpected and eclectic colors and textures to create a warmth and sophistication in the Bar & Bistro. The room’s rear lit onyx bar is a focal point as is the inviting fireplace, custom artwork and plasma TV screens. The lounge-like atmosphere offers both bar and intimate seating areas for daytime dining or weekend live entertainment.
- Executive Chef/Wine Director: Steven De Bruyn (see brief bio, attached)
- Most Popular Dishes: Southwestern corn chowder with shrimp; grilled hamburger with fries, Boursin cheese, caramelized onions and sautéed mushrooms; grilled corn and lobster salad on a croissant served with a chilled exotic fruit soup and a watercress, jicama, mango salad; sautéed red snapper with artichokes, tomatoes, tri-colored fingerling potatoes and leeks; pressed corned beef Reuben on rye with Thousand Island dressing, sauerkraut, salt and vinegar chips, duck spring roll with cucumber-mango salad and two dipping sauces; guava BBQ chicken, coconut rice with peas and pineapple salsa
- Signature Drink: Rein Supreme (Fresh Strawberry Puree, Vodka, Chocolate Liquor and Crème de Cocoa)
- Accolades: “A hotel bistro well worth checking out,” Joan Reminick, Newsday
“Perhaps Long Island’s most refined, rarefied bar menu,” Richard Jay Scholem, The New York Times
- Additional Comments: *Thursday & Saturday Night: Live music and entertainment
*Friday night: Frank Sinatra Tribute to the Rat Pack by Johnny Avino
