English Breakfast

This simple China Black tea is reminiscent of the tea that the English drank regularly in the 1800s. Full to medium bodied with hints of toast and honey, its strength lies in its simplicity, as well as its affinity for milk and sugar.

Earl Grey Supreme

One for the tea connoisseur. Made from a special blend of large black tea leaves and the silver needles of the white tea, this Earl Grey is lighter than most. It has a lovely citrus aroma and a heavy concentration of Bergamot oils. If you like Bergamot and fine tea, this is the tea for you.

Darjeeling Black

The “queen of teas”, this is a blend of first flush and Autumnal teas from the finest tea gardens in the Himalayas. It has a light golden color and a fragrant “nose” of bright citrus along with darker notes of stone apricots and plums.

Formosa Oolong

Also known as the champagne of teas, this oolong produces a delightful peachy brew that is light and soothing to the senses.

Orange Pekoe

A classic blend of strong Assam and smooth liquoring Ceylon produces a mellow and satisfying cup. This is a full-bodied tea that many prefer to temper with milk and sugar.

Egyptian Chamomile

A fragrant and relaxing herbal infusion, completely caffeine-free, and wonderful with a touch of honey. It is made from the heads of Egyptian Chamomile flowers and has subtle notes of apple.

Ajiri, Kenyan Black Tea

High in antioxidants, this tea is big, bold and assertive. The purchase of this tea benefits job creation for women in western Kenya, as well as education for orphans in the area.

Jasmine

Fresh Jasmine flowers are added to a base of Pouchong tea to create a delicate and fragrant brew.

Hibiscus

A caffeine-free herbal tea that has a tart, cranberry-like flavor.

Mother's Bouquet Herbal

A very light caffeine-free herbal tea made from a beautiful blend of mellow Chamomile flowers, rosebuds, cornflowers, and orange peel, and infused with a citrus flavor.

Love Life Green

Sweet flavors of coconut, vanilla and the high notes of strawberry are juxtaposed with darker notes of puffed rice.

Gunpowder Green

An assertive tea with a charred, sharp flavor and a woody aroma.

Birthday Tea

A bright and bold decaffeinated herbal tea, which combines luscious fruit and berry flavors with flowers.

Cherry Blossom

A blend of green teas housing the vibrant flavor of plump, fragrant cherries, this tea is an ode to the first cherry blossoms of Spring.
